ABOUT AEMEE

AEMEE is the leading Industry Body for Indigenous businesses in the resources and renewable energy sectors. AEMEE is a Not for Profit Organisation dedicated to driving sustainability, economic growth, and genuine Indigenous outcomes by fostering meaningful partnerships between Indigenous businesses, industry, and government.

2025 marks a significant milestone for AEMEE as we celebrate 20 years of empowering Indigenous businesses, forging impactful relationships, and driving transformative change in the resources and renewable energy sectors. Over the past two decades, AEMEE has grown into a trusted advocate and catalyst for positive outcomes, creating a legacy of innovation, collaboration, and progress for First Nations communities and the industries they support.

As we celebrate this milestone, we invite our partners to join us in building on this legacy, supporting the next generation of Indigenous leaders, and shaping a sustainable future together.

In achieving our mission, AEMEE holds the belief that Aboriginal people want to be actively involved in the Australian economy and obtain a share in the wealth created by the resources sector.

We do this by:

Networking Events

Connecting Indigenous Businesses with Suppliers

Flagship Annual AEMEE Conference

OUR MISSION | Develop and connect
Indigenous businesses with real business opportunities.

NATIONAL AEMEE CONFERENCE

In order to develop and connect Indigenous businesses with real business opportunities, AEMEE hosts an annual conference. The 18th Annual AEMEE Conference will be held at the Double Tree by Hilton in Darwin, Northern Territory on the 5th and 6th of November, 2025. The aim of the 2025 AEMEE Conference is to connect businesses with relevant networks in the resource sector to create economic growth and opportunities.

The conference does this by:

- Increasing the involvement of Aboriginal people and business in the resource industry through our workshops and networking events.
- Improving the relationships and opportunities between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, Indigenous businesses and all relevant stakeholders in the mining and resource industry.
- Bringing awareness to and creating discussion about the 2025 AEMEE Conference Topics.

The AEMEE Conference also allows the resource sector and Indigenous owned businesses opportunity to share stories of success.

In the resource sector there are many stories of Indigenous people, businesses and communities succeeding on the back of mining investments. There are also numerous stories from resource sector companies supporting and developing Indigenous economic employment development programs.

SPONSORSHIP

AEMEE is the peak body representing Indigenous people and businesses in the resource sector. This year we celebrate our 18th annual Conference. AEMEE has successfully hosted a national conference since 2005 across Australia.

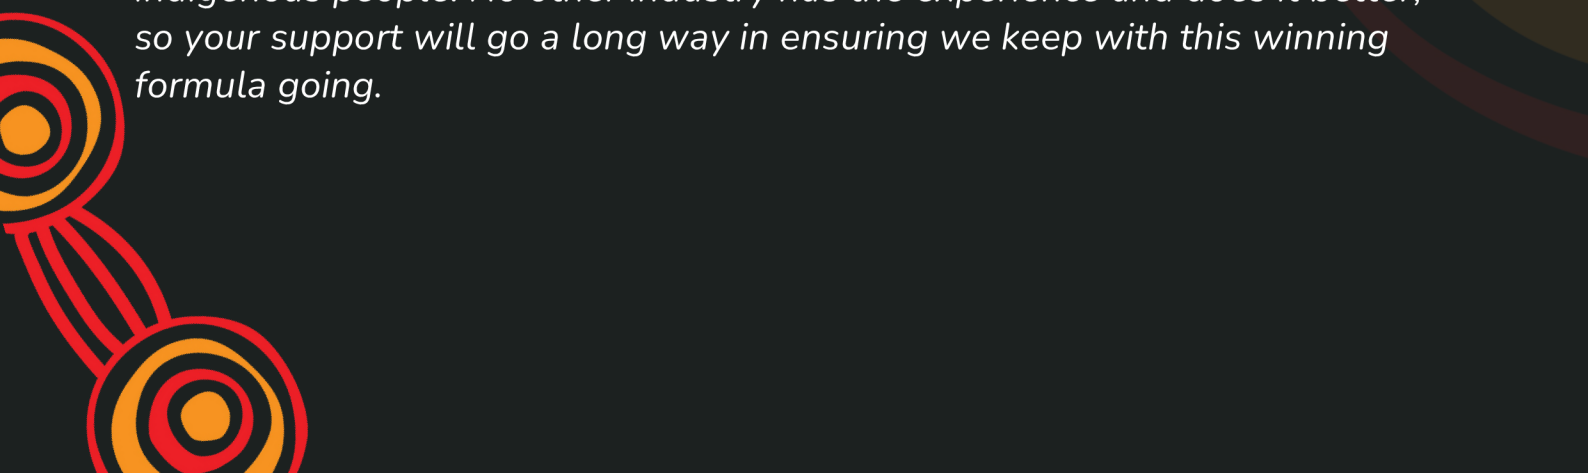

The AEMEE conference has continued to evolve with industry feedback and partnerships to an in-demand valuable networking event for many industry leaders and Indigenous business owners.

Why Sponsor the National AEMEE Conference

Resource companies and Indigenous businesses require good leadership to make the most of this market; this leads to success and long-term sustainability. The resource sector is the leader in Indigenous economic development; AEMEE's goal is to showcase the learning's from a long history in Indigenous economic development including how the resource sector will continue to deliver success during the upturn in the sector. This year the conference is expecting more than 250 delegates of stakeholders, suppliers and Indigenous Businesses from across the country.

AEMEE provides sponsors an opportunity to be part of a winning formula. The resource sector is the biggest economic driver for Indigenous people and is one of the largest private sector employers of Aboriginal people. AEMEE as the peak body representing Indigenous people in this sector provides the forum to highlight and support this success.

Your sponsorship is supporting a successful formula as the industry shows year after year that it is delivering true economic development for Indigenous people. No other industry has the experience and does it better, so your support will go a long way in ensuring we keep with this winning formula going.

The bottom of the page features decorative Indigenous art patterns. On the right side, there are several concentric circles in shades of brown, tan, and dark grey. On the bottom left, there are more complex patterns including concentric circles and radiating lines in red, orange, and yellow.

OUR ARTWORK STORY

The artwork represents AEMEE and how we connect with community. The “Gathering Circles” represent the mining, energy and exploration sectors, of AEMEE.

The “Linking Lines” between each Gathering Circle indicate the connection each sector share.

The small dots represent the communities in which AEMEE works with. The outside line work depict tracking marks and the larger dots represent the footprints AEMEE are making.
